Exodus Family Ministries

LOUISVILLE, KY

Lonnie Harris (pictured on the left) came to Exodus Family Ministries via his brother, Vinnie, posthumously. Vinnie had been living in a camp that Exodus visited regularly while doing outreach. Lonnie and his dad were visiting the camp to see where Vinnie had stayed and met Shane Schlatter, Exodus' executive director, who was ministering to some of the unsheltered residents. As they spoke, Shane invited Lonnie to come to the Thanksgiving meal where Vinnie was going to be baptized.

Lonnie was thankful to learn that his brother had established a relationship with Christ before he passed. When he came to the dinner and saw how the volunteers were filled with "overwhelming love in a nonjudgemental way," he knew he wanted to be a part of it.

Lonnie has been a regular volunteer with Exodus for the past 18 months in all of our program areas. He recently had it on his heart to bring together as many of the churches in the area so that congregants could meet one another and those who may be looking for a church home might find one. He, therefore, organized the Southend Unity Festival that will be on May 25th. He said the free event will feature at least 15 churches, live music, testimonials, messages of faith, food trucks, and children's activities. Exodus appreciates all that Lonnie does for the ministry and that he included us in his plans for the Festival. Be sure to stop by the event to let Lonnie know that he's done a great job!

Mark your calendars for the upcoming Yard Sale at the Food Pantry!

As the temps start to rise, the camps will need a lot of water to keep the people hydrated and out of hospitals. Please consider donating cases of water to our ministry.

Hats Off to Julie Halbert

Exodus wants to thank Julie Halbert, CPA for her service as board treasurer for the past four years. Julie will be rolling off the board at the end of this month. She was instrumental in the reorganization of the ministry from its predecessor, Southwest Family Ministries, and has been a wonderful advocate for our organization. We can't thank her enough for her tireless efforts to get us on sound financial footing so that we can serve the southend where she was raised.
